school choirs welcome

Join us for an all day, comprehensive workshop, centered on improving vocal production skills and learning the art of a cappella style Barbershop Harmony with our clinician, Andi Giles. This curriculum, designed for the high school level, includes.

- Learning a four-part harmony a cappella song
- Section unity study with an award winning quartet
- Vocal production instruction from our regional faculty
- Showmanship instruction with a choreographer
- Performance opportunity – at 4 pm we will perform our song for all Sweet Adeline members attending their general session.
- Lunch included in registration fee
